Consultants and Experts Employed by the Client

The names in Table 1 below represent a preliminary, indicative selection (per November 2024) and are translations from Hebrew. In case of ambiguity, the original Hebrew names prevail. Other consultants and/or experts might be added, and existing consultants and/or experts might be removed as the planning progresses. If the Consulting Firm intends to employ consultant(s), sub-consultant(s) and/or expert(s) employed by the Client, first prior approval shall be obtained to prevent a potential conflict of interest.
